

ROTARY
IN LONDON YOUTH
MAKES MUSIC

1. Applications to perform at this Rotary Youth Makes Music Concert on Thursday, 22nd. February 2018 at the Royal Festival Hall, are open to any individual or group (choir / orchestra / band / ensemble) consisting of young people between the ages of 11 and 18 as at the date of the Concert.
2. All entrants should be undertaking a course of “approved” full-time education as at the date of the Concert.
3. Entrants should, for the 2018 Concert, submit any piece - this may be of any musical genre (Classical / jazz / folk / popular) – With the work (s) being selected from any period in musical history.)
4. Each entrant should submit either a single piece, or programme of music, to a maximum duration of seven minutes.
5. If selected to take part at the Concert, the piece, or programme of music previously submitted to the Musical Director for appraisal, is that which is to be performed on the night.
6. One adult (or member of staff) per entry may ‘conduct’ the group but not otherwise take part in the performance.
7. No fees are payable for performances at the Concert.
8. The decision of the Musical Director on whether, or not, to include an entry in the Concert, is final. No correspondence with unsuccessful entrants or schools/groups can be entered on this matter.

If you should have any queries specifically about these criteria / rules, or indeed any other matters concerning the concert, please contact myself, I will pass same to the appropriate committee member if required..
